Why Humanistic Management

HM envisions a society and an economy that works for all. Such a society promotes organizing practices that honor the inherent value of all life and protect dignity.

Management practices in such an economy promote human well-being and flourishing of all life.

Humanistic Management presents a perspective that allows positive changemakers to engage mindfully with the world providing solutions to the large social and environmental problems.

Mission

- The International Humanistic Management Association provides a platform for all interested and passionate to protect the inherent value of all life and want to contribute to the wellbeing of all.
